

CPYRGHT

Mr. Donovan joined Mr. Morgenthau in predicting a Democratic upset at the polls today. He warned the people "not to be misled by all the Republican-owned newspapers and slick magazines" that have been predicting an easy victory for Gov. Rockefeller and Sen. Jacob K. Javits.

Despite the convincing display of bravado, the last day of campaigning still demonstrated the disunity and organizational difficulties that have plagued the Democrats this year.